- Comissário europeu Carlos Moedas em Lisboa

O Comissário europeu Carlos Moedas está hoje e amanhã em Lisboa. Esta noite, pelas 20h00, participa na cerimónia comemorativa dos 40 anos das atividades do Banco Europeu de Investimento em Portugal. Amanhã, terça-feira, entre as 11h00 e as 13h00, Carlos Moedas estará presente na Comissão de Assuntos Europeus da Assembleia da República. A participação do Comissário Europeu na Assembleia da República terá como tema o “Estado da União” apresentado pelo Presidente da Comissão Europeia Jean-Claude Juncker no passado dia 14, em Estrasburgo.

- Commissioner Stylianides in Turkey to launch largest-ever EU humanitarian aid programme

Today Commissioner for Humanitarian Aid and Crisis Management Christos Stylianides is in Ankara to launch the EU's flagship humanitarian aid programme, which is set to provide a monthly electronic cash grant to benefit 1 million refugees in Turkey. The Commissioner will take part in the official launch event of the €348 million Emergency Social Safety Net (ESSN) aid programme in Ankara alongside Executive Director of the World Food Programme Ertharin Cousin. Audiovisual coverage will be made available on EBS. A factsheet on the ESSN aid programme is available here.

- United Nations General Assembly ministerial week concludes with active EU participation

On Friday, the ministerial week of the United Nations General Assembly came to an end. Throughout the week, the European Union was actively engaged in a large number of multilateral and bilateral meetings through a high-level delegation. The main focus of the meetings was managing migration in partnerships, and in this context, the EU also participated in the global Summit on large movements of refugees and migrants, which adopted the New York Declaration on refugees and migrants. The European Union stands behind the Declaration, as a balanced basis for collective, multilateral action. Also in focus was the entry into force of the historic Paris Agreement. Commissioner Arias Cañete was at the high-level ceremony on the entry into force (see also here), as well as the High Ambition Coalition press conference. He also held a speech at the Montreal Protocol event on hydrofluorocarbons and participated in the Major Economies Forum on Energy and Climate on Friday and in the Climate Financial Ministerial meeting on Saturday.

- EU to push for first global scheme to curb aviation CO2 emissions at the Assembly of the UN's civil aviation body

EU Commissioner for Transport Violeta Bulc will lead the EU delegation at the 39th Assembly of the International Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO) which starts tomorrow in Montreal, Canada. Held until 7 October, this triennial Assembly brings together all 191 aviation authorities of the world. The main agenda item will be the reduction of carbon emissions in the aviation sector. After years of work the Assembly is set to adopt a Global Market-Based Measure (GMBM) to curb CO2 emissions in the sector. This would be the first ever globally binding deal to tackle emissions in an entire economic sector. In line with its climate policy, the European Union will be pushing for the most ambitious outcome with the aim of achieving carbon neutral growth in international aviation as of 2020. The position of the European Union can be found here. Besides decarbonisation, other topics on the agenda of the Assembly include cyber threats, the overflight of conflict zones, drones and support to developing states ("capacity building").

- Next round of EU-US trade talks to take place next week in New York

The 15th round of EU-US negotiations on the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership (TTIP) agreement will take place in New York City, from 3 to 7 October. The aim of this round is to make as much progress as possible in all areas of the talks, in particular in the regulatory cooperation and rules areas. Both EU and US chief negotiators will take a break from the talks to brief civil society, including NGOs and trade unions as well as business and consumer organisations, on the progress of negotiations. The event will take place on Wednesday, 5 October. In line with the Commission's transparency policy, a detailed progress report will be issued in all EU official languages after the round. A closing conference call by the EU and US chief negotiators will take place on Friday 7 October. Registration closes at midnight (Brussels time) on 30 September.

- Seven EU-funded films awarded at the San Sebastián Film Festival

Seven films supported by the Creative Europe - MEDIA programme were awarded at the 64th edition of the San Sebastián Film Festival in Spain. In total more than 20 films funded with over €2 million of EU funding were pre-selected for the competition in different sections (more details). See the press release on the modernisation of EU copyright rules. This year the MEDIA programme celebrates its 25th anniversary. Since its creation in 1991, the MEDIA programme has invested €2.4 billion in the European audiovisual industry. Each year, around 2000 European films, television series and other projects receive MEDIA funding that supports their development and distribution (see factsheet as well as questions and answers).

- EUROSTAT: Journée mondiale du tourisme: 1 nuitée sur 5 effectuées par des résidents de l'UE est du fait de touristes de 65 ans et plus

Avec plus de 1,2 milliard de nuitées effectuées au cours de leurs voyages dans le monde entier en 2014, les touristes âgés de 65 ans et plus (ci-après dénommés «touristes âgés») vivant dans l'Union européenne (UE) ont représenté 20% de l'activité touristique (en termes de nombre de nuitées de résidents de l'UE). Toutefois, leur part dans les dépenses touristiques était légèrement inférieure, s'établissant à 16%. En effet, un touriste âgé dans l'UE a dépensé en moyenne 52,60 euros par jour, soit 12,70 euros de moins que le touriste moyen. Un communiqué de presse EUROSTAT est disponible en ligne.
